Washington, March 7—Sen. McCarthy (D-Minn.) said today that revelations by the Central Intelligence Agency and Francis Gary Powers indicate conclusively that the U-2 incident was badly bungled.

McCarthy, a forceful critic of CIA's free-wheeling methods, said the inherent contradictions in the statements that the agency released show that the U-2 flights were poorly conceived and haplessly planned.

McCarthy also questioned the CIA statement that U-2 pilots "were not selected or trained as espionage agents." He indicated it may have been severe oversight not to realize that a pilot might crash alive behind enemy lines and not selected and train men to deal with such
